The University of Southern California welcomes back the 2025 L.A. Times Festival of Books. New processes and technology have been integrated to help you navigate and plan your Festival experience.

REMINDER: CAMPUS PARKING

Event parking is $20 (convenience and data fees apply) and USC Campus is now completely CASHLESS! All our campus parking structures now feature Text2Park technology; all you need is your license plate, a mobile phone, and a credit card. Drive straight in, park in any normal, unmarked space in any of the Jefferson, USC Shrine, Figueroa, Downey or Grand Ave locations below and text the location code (by the elevator or stairwell) to 25023.

These structures are patrolled using LPR (License Plate Recognition) technology, so be sure to enter your license plate information correctly and pay as soon as you park your car. The Downey and Figueroa Structures (in cardinal on the map) are open to first-come first-serve sales; the McCarthy, Flower and Royal Structures (in black on the map) are not available for daily sales during this event. Limited prepaid parking is available in the USC Shrine, Grand Ave and Jefferson Structures (in yellow on the map).
